Spencer Fane Earns Inaugural Empowering Women Award from The Journal Record

Spencer Fane is honored to have been among the first winners of The Journal Record's inaugural Empowering Women Awards. Attorneys Shannon Davies, Hilary Allen, and Sarah Clutts, and summer associate LeeAnn Littlejohn attended the awards reception on July 13 in Oklahoma City.

The Empowering Women Awards highlight companies and organizations that focus on supporting and elevating women in Oklahoma. All 24 honorees were celebrated at the Oklahoma History Center at a reception that also honored The Journal Record's Beacon and Top Projects Award winners.

The Journal Record is an award-winning daily general business and legal publication. Through its daily print newspaper and website, the publication focuses on local and statewide business trends and in-depth stories that convey the voice of the Oklahoma business community.
