

SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Expands Health Care Team with Accomplished Denver Attorney

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to welcome Terry Cipoletti to the firm's Denver office as an of counsel attorney in the Health Care Practice Group.

Terry combines deep health care industry knowledge with extensive litigation experience to help health care organizations and professionals manage legal risks, protect sensitive information, and navigate complex regulatory and litigation matters.

Drawing on decades of experience representing diverse health care entities and professionals, Terry advises clients on regulatory matters including privacy and data security, HIPAA compliance, breach investigations and notifications, security risk assessments, and regulatory requirements under Colorado law. He works closely with health care providers to develop practical compliance strategies, to investigate and address privacy incidents, and to respond to government investigations related to data security and privacy matters.

When disputes do arise, Terry provides representation in state and federal courts and before administrative agencies, defending against malpractice, privacy, negligence, civil rights, credentialing, employment, product liability, wrongful death, and other complex claims.

"We look forward to welcoming Terry. He brings to us an established background managing health care regulatory policy, data security risks, and complex health care disputes, and he shares our firm's commitment to highly strategic, world-class client service," said Ron Fano, office managing partner for Spencer Fane in Denver.

"Terry also reflects our core values through his commitment to serving fellow attorneys and community members.”

Terry is a proactive member of the Colorado Bar Association’s Health Law Section, where he is an At-Large Member of the Executive Council; Colorado Defense Lawyers Association; and his local Bars. He has served his community through the Colorado Attorney Mentor Program, Boulder County AIDS Project, and Rocky Mountain Equality.

After receiving his bachelor’s degree from the College of William & Mary, Terry earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Colorado Law School.