Spencer Fane Expands International Tax Practice with Tampa Partner

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to welcome David S. Barnhill to the firm's Tampa office as a partner in the Tax, Trusts, & Estates practice group.

David represents corporate clients in international tax planning initiatives, including inbound and outbound restructuring, and diligently guides high-net-worth individuals through pre-residency planning, expatriation, and other international tax and succession planning matters. Notably, he has advised numerous clients on participation in the IRS Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program and other U.S. international income tax and reporting compliance matters.

In addition to maximizing clients' tax benefits, David's practice focuses on resolving the many complex stages of tax controversy disputes, where his representation experience spans IRS examinations and appeals, U.S. Tax Court proceedings, and federal appellate litigation.

"David joins our team with calibrated talent in tax law and associated litigation," said Kirby McDonough, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Tampa. "His value-maximizing strategies and commitment to exceptional client service align with our core values and will continue to help foster intentional firm growth."

After completing his undergraduate studies at Brigham Young University, David earned his Juris Doctor cum laude from Indiana University Maurer School of Law. Following, he earned his Master of Laws from New York University School of Law.
