

Spencer Fane Growth in Tampa Highlighted in Law360

The Spencer Fane Tampa office's steady expansion was discussed in a recent Law360 article. After the firm announced the addition of three associates in October following three real estate partner additions in August, the news outlet highlighted this "growth spurt."

The article, Spencer Fane Adds Three Associates to Roster, summarized the accomplishments of the newest Tampa associates, Brittainy Joyner, Marissa Milazzo, and Nicole Zaworska in their respective practice areas. Law360 also interviewed Office Managing Partner Kirby McDonough about the firm's multipractice expansion in the Tampa market.

"These are the highest-quality [attorneys], not just academically, but they fit our culture," Kirby said. "We know that when we hire attorneys like this, they're going to serve our clients to the highest degree and these are people that we can trust."

Read the full article here. Note, a subscription may be required.