Spencer Fane Helps Co-Found ABI Ascent Network

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce its presence in the founding cohort of the American Bankruptcy Institute (ABI)'s recently launched Ascent Network.

The Network is ABI's new firmwide membership solution for restructuring and insolvency practices wanting to maximize their involvement with the organization. Through a new single firm agreement model, the Ascent Network streamlines overall access to ABI resources, enhances professional development, and elevates member visibility.

As part of the 13 founding firms in the network, Spencer Fane continues to demonstrate its commitment to innovation within the legal industry. Furthermore, the firm – which possesses a widely renowned Bankruptcy, Restructuring, and Creditors' Rights team – strengthens its active involvement with the ABI. From published thought leadership to numerous speaking engagements, Spencer Fane is honored to serve as an educational resource for the ABI.
