Spencer Fane Helps Save Lives Through Austin Office Blood Drive

The Spencer Fane Austin office was pleased to host a successful American Red Cross blood drive on March 26. The event met its goal of 26 units, which will help save over 100 lives.

The American Red Cross alleviates human suffering in the face of emergencies by mobilizing volunteer power and the generosity of donors. Through the nonprofit's donation services, the Red Cross supplies about 40% of the nation's blood, a resource needed across the U.S. approximately every two seconds.

Spencer Fane is committed to building relationships, driving local development, and creating opportunities to positively impact the communities we serve. Through pro bono work, volunteer service, and leadership on nonprofit boards, professionals across the firm's national footprint support the missions of countless organizations.
