SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Honored for Legal Aid Society Partnership

Spencer Fane was proud to be honored by the Legal Aid Society of Middle Tennessee and the Cumberlands at the organization's Champions of Justice: An Evening of Gratitude. Stephen Zralek attended the special October 24 event in Nashville on behalf of the firm.

This appreciation-centered happy hour celebrated the Nashville legal community's dedication to pro bono service and increasing access to justice. Spencer Fane was among several firms recognized for their advocacy and collaboration with the Legal Aid Society.

As a founding member of the Legal Aid Society's Leadership Cabinet, the Spencer Fane Nashville office – formerly Bone McAllester Norton – has supported the organization every year since its inception. Through partnerships such as these, the Legal Aid Society has fostered meaningful, lasting change in providing legal representation to low-income individuals that protects their livelihoods, health, and families

Learn more about the Legal Aid Society here.