Spencer Fane Joins Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce the firm's membership with the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce & Visitors Bureau. Attorney Elaisha Nandrajog will serve as firm representative.

The Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce attracts, supports, and grows business in the Walnut Creek, California, region through advocacy and inclusive economic and business development. The organization aims to foster business growth, bring together leaders and influencers who create lasting impact, and champion a stronger community.

The Spencer Fane San Jose office is proud to lend its resources to the Chamber's strategic imperatives, which include increasing the organization's visibility and influence, establishing partnerships to help attract innovative businesses to this region, and creating world-class innovation hubs.
