

Spencer Fane Litigation Team Adds Dallas Associate with Financial Services Background

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to welcome Grant Figari to the firm's Dallas office as an associate in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group.

Grant focuses his growing practice on complex commercial litigation, with particular experience representing banks and other financial services providers. His practice emphasizes efficiency and strategic decision-making, and he regularly advises clients on early case assessment and claim valuation, helping them weigh the costs and benefits of litigation compared to alternative resolutions.

"We continue to pursue measured growth opportunities and look forward to utilizing Grant's strengths to provide further depth to the full-service legal offerings we provide in Dallas and the surrounding region," said Jason Cross, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Dallas.

Grant obtained his bachelor's degree from The King's College and earned his Juris Doctor from the University of North Carolina School of Law, where he won several awards for his oral advocacy while competing on the National Trial Team and National Appellate Advocacy Team. During law school, he also completed an externship for the Honorable Lucy Inman at the North Carolina Court of Appeals, gaining critical experience which helped inform his ability to utilize the full range of dispute resolution options to achieve beneficial outcomes.
