Spencer Fane Named “Firm That Keep Their Attorneys Happy” in Law360’s 2022 Attorney Satisfaction Survey

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce that it has received high marks from its attorneys and earned a spot among the top five in the 2022 Law360 Pulse Lawyer Satisfaction Survey, “The Law Firms That Keep Attorneys Happy.” The firm tied for fourth place on the survey, which measures attorneys’ satisfaction in a variety of categories, including compensation, billable hours, opportunities for advancement, and the collegiality of their firms.

The Lawyer Satisfaction Survey highlights the strengths and successes of the business of law, such as the financial security, camaraderie and sense of purpose that it can impart. Inclusion on Law360’s list reinforces the firm’s focus on attracting and retaining the best professional talent in the industry.

At Spencer Fane, our attorneys are always learning, considering divergent perspectives, and unearthing new ways to enhance the service they provide to others. We seek to provide clear, reliable counsel that is free of ambiguity and inefficiencies to get to solutions faster. On a daily basis, Spencer Fane attorney teams are actively exploring ways to unlock value with our clients, colleagues, and communities. Our core values include humility, inclusivity, and collaboration, which empower our teams to tap into an unwavering ambition to achieve successful outcomes on behalf of clients.

The survey, which was conducted from January 14 to February 14, 2022, received 1,209 responses that measured satisfaction through a rating system. Firm scores are derived from five satisfaction questions with a 1–5 rating scale, with one representing the most satisfied, and five the least. The scores were averaged, with a lower numerical score representing better satisfaction in each instance.
