

SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Now Accepting Arts Applicants for 2024 Charitable Grant in Kansas City

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce it is now accepting applicants for its 2024 Charitable Grant Program in Kansas City.

The Spencer Fane Charitable Grant in Kansas City provides significant support to select local nonprofit arts organizations through a $50,000 donation paid in installments over the course of three years. The program is designed as a rotation so that one new recipient will enter the program each year with another exiting upon completion of its three-year cycle. Our primary goal for the program is to encourage long-standing relationships with nonprofit organizations and provide employees with additional opportunities to become involved with the firm's causes.

Spencer Fane is currently accepting applications for a new recipient to enter the program rotation in 2024. To be considered, an organization must have a strong focus on the arts in Kansas City and have a need for the funds that will allow the firm to have a significant, positive impact on its cause. It is also preferred that an organization offer the firm and its employees unique and creative ways to become involved in its mission.

Current and past recipients include Band of Angels, The Folly Theater, Midwest Music Foundation, Charlotte Street Foundation, Crossroads Preparatory Academy, Lyric Opera Kansas City, Kansas City Friends of Alvin Ailey, Heart of America Shakespeare Festival, ArtsKC-Regional Arts Council, and Kansas City Art Institute.

To learn more about becoming a recipient of the Spencer Fane Charitable Grant in Kansas City, or to apply, download the application here. Applications are due November 10, 2023.