Spencer Fane Participates in STCL Houston On-Campus Interview Session

Spencer Fane was proud to be a participating employer at the South Texas College of Law (STCL) Houston's on-campus interview (OCI) session on August 9 at the institution's Career Resource Center. Law Student Recruiting Coordinator Camryn McAtee represented the firm at the event.

At this early OCI session, 52 legal organizations conducted more than 370 interviews with STCL Houston students seeking both summer internships and full-time attorney positions post-graduation. The session was one of multiple recruiting events in which Spencer Fane has partaken this year as part of its commitment to attract exceptional students and attorneys with unique life experiences, backgrounds, skill sets, perspectives, and other invaluable attributes.

This pursuit and retention of top talent is essential to the firm's incomparable culture and its continued trajectory as the fastest-growing law firm in the nation. As a result, Spencer Fane has not only nationally ranked as one of the highest-performing firms in workplace satisfaction, client satisfaction, and diversity traction, but also expanded its value to law students. The firm recently wrapped up its 2024 Summer Associate program which saw its largest class in Spencer Fane history, illustrating the increased learning experiences the firm provides as well as the potential for lifelong career opportunities.
