

Spencer Fane Receives Turnaround Award at Distressed Investing Summit

Spencer Fane was pleased to receive recognition at the 18th Annual Turnaround Awards, which were part of the March 18–19 Distressed Investing Summit in West Palm Beach. Attorneys Zach Fairlie and Camber Jones represented the firm at the awards ceremony and served as conference speakers.

Hosted by The M&A Advisor, the Summit brings together leading executives, business media, and dealmakers to discuss trends, opportunities, and key issues facing the restructuring and distressed M&A market. The event closes with the prestigious Turnaround Awards, a formal gala reception and dinner celebration that recognizes the year's leading distressed M&A transactions, restructuring, refinancing, products and services, firms, and dealmakers. For their role in the Sec. 363 Going Concern Sale of Allied Healthcare Products, Inc., Zach, Camber, and Eric Peterson earned Spencer Fane the Healthcare/Life Sciences Deal of the Year (Under $100MM) honor. The team also discussed the case as part of a session panel at the Summit.

At Spencer Fane, Zach and Camber skillfully guide creditor and debtor clients through complex corporate reorganizations and distressed asset sales in court-supervised processes and out-of-court restructurings—principally those involving balance sheet, environmental, labor, and mass tort litigation issues throughout a wide variety of industries, including agriculture, alternative investments, construction, energy, health care, hospitality, manufacturing, telecommunications, and transportation.
