SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Sponsors Austin Bar Association Meeting

The Spencer Fane Austin office was pleased to sponsor the Austin Bar Association Administrative Law Section's Annual Meeting on July 25. Firm attorney Rashmin Asher represented the firm at the event.

The meeting took place at La Mancha Tex Mex Tavern, with attendees enjoying food, drinks, and connection. The Section also elected its new executive members. Rashmin, a current director at large for the Section, will begin her next term with the organization in September 2025.

At Spencer Fane, Rashmin focuses her practice on administrative law in the area of public utility regulation, and she has represented utilities and municipalities in proceedings before governmental and regulatory boards throughout Texas. She harnesses past experience as a managing attorney and staff attorney for the Public Utility Commission of Texas, where she represented the Commission in numerous electric and water administrative and contested case proceedings. Her knowledge includes base rate, change of control, sale/transfer/merger, transmission line, and cost recovery factor proceedings; certificate of convenience and necessity amendments for generation; and more.