

SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Sponsors Fayetteville Chamber Event as It Gains Northwest Arkansas Presence

Spencer Fane was pleased to sponsor Chamber Fayetteville's Women of All Generations event on June 16 in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Attorney Vicki Bronson represented the firm at the event alongside summer associates Claire Townsend and Elizabeth Noel.

This annual panel and networking event connects women across industries and age groups while providing opportunities to support local, women-owned businesses and celebrate meaningful leadership and community impact. Vicki attended as both of member of the Chamber board and new Spencer Fane attorney under its recent combination with Conner & Winters.

In addition to enjoying Spencer Fane swag, attendees had the opportunity to learn how this combination enhances the value the firm brings to clients in Northwest Arkansas. By uniting deep local insight with an expanded national platform, Spencer Fane is poised to offer clients greater resources, broader capabilities, and seamless service across key practice areas – an approach that reflects Chamber Fayetteville's commitment to fostering meaningful connections and supporting business growth across the region.