Spencer Fane Sponsors Housing Industry Foundation Poker Fundraiser

Spencer Fane was pleased to sponsor the inaugural BluSky Poker Night fundraiser benefiting the Housing Industry Foundation (HIF) on June 6 in San Jose, California. Attorneys Jeffrey Ratinoff, Servando Sandoval, and Ginger Sotelo represented the firm at the event.

In addition to the Texas Hold 'Em tournament in which Jeff took fourth place, attendees enjoyed food, drinks, cigars, networking, and additional games. The event raised over $37,000 for HIF's Emergency Housing Fund (EHF) which provides crucial, direct aid to San Mateo and Santa Clara County families to protect them from experiencing homelessness.

In addition to the EHF, the HIF utilizes extensive relationships with service agencies, nonprofits, and other community-focused organizations for additional homelessness prevention programs in areas such as shelter renovation and affordable housing. Servando serves on the organization's board of directors and helps spearhead Spencer Fane involvement, alongside Karen McCay, who has also served on the HIF board.
