

SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Sponsors IPBC Asia 2024 in Tokyo

Spencer Fane is a proud sponsor of IPBC Asia 2024, a November 19–24 conference hosted by IAM in Tokyo. Attorneys John Picone and Gene Cherng will represent the firm at this premier event.

Featuring some of the Asia-Pacific region's foremost intellectual property thought leaders, this conference offers three days of cutting-edge content and impactful networking. The program explores the diversity of innovation and industries within Asia and provides insights designed to elevate IP strategies, foster connections, and drive deals.

At Spencer Fane, Gene and John are valuable members of the firm's Intellectual Property team. Gene successfully represents patent owners and accused infringers in cases involving software, electrical, and mechanical arts technologies. John specializes in complex cases that deviate from standard practices and require meticulous research, comprehensive knowledge, and high-level creativity to protect clients' interests.

Learn more about the event here.