Spencer Fane Sponsors January Legacy Network Session

The Spencer Fane Springfield office was pleased to sponsor the Legacy Network's January 27 Roundtable Session in Springfield, Missouri. Attorney Ben Shantz represented the firm at the event.

The Legacy Network is a professional and personal development program designed to enhance participants' leadership skills, expand their network, and amplify their influence to craft a lasting legacy. At the session, presented by Commerce Bank and hosted at Burrell Behavioral Health, each program cohort experiences six half-day sessions featuring the insights of the region's brightest business minds. At the firm's sponsored session, Winning From Within, Ben provided opening remarks and introductions before three impactful sessions: The Ownership Mindset with Jack Stack, Winning Starts with You with Brett Baker, and Building Your Wealth and Protecting Your Assets with Gretchen Cliburn and Emily Kembell.

At the firm, Ben serves as a trial attorney and counselor who helps his clients focus on growing their businesses. Ben has a reputation for providing practical legal advice that enables clients to make real-time, critical business decisions. He uses his experience in the courtroom to help clients prevent litigation in the first place and best position them when disputes do arise by drafting a wide range of contracts to better protect their interests on the front end.
