Spencer Fane Sponsors Missouri Growth Association Golf Tournament

Spencer Fane was a proud sponsor of the Missouri Growth Association (MGA) golf tournament on October 10 in Glendale, Missouri. Attorneys John Klevorn, Scot Seabaugh, and Rob Epstein represented the firm at the event. Amy Mistler currently serves as a member of MGA's Board of Directors.

The sold-out event, PLAY FOR MGA, took place at the Algonquin Golf Club. In addition to providing a fun day of golfing that commenced with a shotgun start, the tournament provided attendees with lunch, course snacks, beverages, and a happy hour.

Founded in 1985, MGA is a trade association of commercial property owners, managers, and developers. The organization specializes in the commercial real estate industry to support actions that generate economic growth for all business sectors and cultivate job opportunities. MGA aims to build a strong economy in Missouri by advocating for the reform of policies and programs that impede the state's economic growth and sustainability.
