Spencer Fane Sponsors Oklahoma City Memorial Marathon

Spencer Fane was honored to serve as a sponsor for the 2025 Oklahoma City Memorial Marathon, a six-race event benefiting the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum, on April 26-27 in Oklahoma City. Attorneys Shannon Forth Davies, and George Freedman joined legal administrative assistants Makenzie MacMillan and Laura Holkum in participating.

This “Run to Remember” is one of several Museum-led events throughout April that honors those affected by the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing, the deadliest act of domestic terrorism in U.S. history. This year’s marathon – which serves as the Museum’s largest annual fundraiser – marked the 30th anniversary of this devastating event and highlighted the theme, ‘A Day of Darkness, Years of Light.’

Offering a Marathon, Half Marathon, Quarter Marathon, 5K, Senior Marathon, and Kids Marathon, the annual race weekend allows participants to actively join the Museum’s mission to “remember those who were killed, those who survived, and those changed forever.” Volunteers are also participants in the Oklahoma Standard, a statewide initiative born from the altruistic response to the bombing that preserves and promotes a culture of caring citizens by encouraging Acts of Service, Honor, and Kindness.
