Spencer Fane Sponsors Texas Lawyers for Children Fundraiser

Spencer Fane was honored to support Denim & Dreams, a benefit concert for Texas Lawyers for Children (TLC), on May 7 in Dallas. Attorney Sarah Fandrey organized the sponsorship with Christine Chasse, Kim Kerns, and Jessica Lee also attending.

Held at Community Beer Co., the fundraiser featured live music from Crystal and Will Yates, live and silent auctions, a raffle, dinner, and an open bar. Jason Wheeler, WFAA Channel 8 news anchor, emceed the event.

TLC protects abused and neglected children from harm in foster care through advocacy and providing training and other resources, helping the legal community create a path to healing and safety. By assisting almost 4,000 Texas judges and attorneys, who make life-changing decisions for over 150,000 abused and neglected children, TLC makes far-reaching, statewide positive change for kids. Sarah serves on the organization's board of trustees.
