Spencer Fane Sponsors The Coterie Trivia Night

Spencer Fane was proud to sponsor The Coterie Theatre Trivia Night on February 5. Attorneys Stacy Harper and Amy Lewandowski, Events Manager Clint Armistead, and several firm clients and friends comprised two teams at the Kansas City, Missouri, fundraiser, one of which placed second in the competition.

Hosted at the renowned Boulevard Brewing Company, the event allowed attendees to enjoy competitive fun, dinner from Waldo Pizza, and raffle prizes. Proceeds will support The Coterie's mission to celebrate young people and engage diverse communities through professional theatre and education programs that foster creativity, confidence, and compassion.

Spencer Fane was pleased to extend its ongoing support for the nonprofit theater, which serves as the 2024-2026 recipient of the firm's Charitable Giving Program in Kansas City. Every year, the firm selects a nonprofit arts organization to receive $50,000 over the course of three years for its community-focused programs. As The Coterie Trivia Night demonstrates, the Spencer Fane Charitable Grant encourages long-standing relationships with nonprofit organizations and provides Spencer Fane professionals with additional involvement opportunities.
