Spencer Fane Strengthens Real Estate Practice with Associate Well-Versed in Water Law

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce John Peckler has joined the Real Estate practice as an associate in the firm's Denver office.

Peckler brings significant experience in connection with water law, including water rights, water transactions, and regulatory water matters in complex real estate projects. He focuses his practice on helping clients navigate land use and real estate issues for complex construction and development projects.

"We have an identified need from clients for handling these important and increasingly complex matters in real estate transactions," said Ron Fano, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane. "John's experience and familiarity with Colorado real estate, land-use and water rights law certainly bolsters the depth of our team. We believe he will be a great fit with our collaborative yet efficient approach to handling complex projects."

Peckler completed his undergraduate studies in finance and international business at the University of Colorado and earned his Juris Doctor from Lewis & Clark Law School. Prior to joining Spencer Fane, he worked at a boutique water law firm in Boulder, Colorado.
