

SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Supports Nancy C. Dreher Lecture on Bankruptcy Law and Practice

Spencer Fane was pleased to sponsor the reception for the 11th Annual Nancy C. Dreher Lecture on Bankruptcy Law and Practice – an event attorney Jim Lodoen coordinates – on April 21 in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In addition, Eric Johnson was a program speaker. Both are Fellows in the American College of Bankruptcy.

A collaboration between the American College of Bankruptcy, University of Minnesota Law School's Corporate Institute, MSBA / HCBA / RCBA Bankruptcy Section, and Turnaround Management Association, this year's program centered on the topic, Riding the Receivership Wave: Insight from Receivers, Lawyers and the Bench. Eric and his fellow CLE panelists examined the legal framework governing receiverships and how they are applied in practice through the lens of a receiver, experienced restructuring counsel, and a judge. Their practical insights addressed advising clients, managing risk, navigating receivership proceedings, and more, while including lessons learned from recent cases and the evolving bench expectations.

After the lecture, attendees gathered at the Courtyard by Marriott for an hourlong reception featuring refreshments and engaging conversation.

At Spencer Fane, Jim and Eric are pivotal members of the firm's Bankruptcy, Restructuring, and Creditors' Rights Practice Group. This team has built a strong reputation for skillfully guiding clients through insolvency matters and the complexities of the bankruptcy and receivership processes. Through their creative problem-solving abilities and pragmatic approach, clients are better equipped to maximize their recoveries and advance their business objectives.