Spencer Fane Team Attends LCLD Spring Meetings

Spencer Fane attorneys Dina Aouad, Heather Hughes, and Elaisha Nandrajog attended the 2025 Spring Meetings for their respective Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) programs on March 19-22 in San Diego, California.

Dina, Heather, and Elaisha each enjoyed three days of professional development programming, networking, and dine-arounds. Dina and Heather connected with their Pathfinders class while Elaisha joined the 2025 Fellows, with all three attorneys attending the Joint Reception on March 20.

Spencer Fane is honored to extend such career development opportunities to its professionals. Through robust partnerships with organizations such as LCLD, the firm maintains its commitments to fostering top talent and building a diverse and inclusive legal profession.

At the firm, Dina focuses her practice on civil and commercial litigation, as well as labor and employment matters. Heather focuses her practice on corporate law, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, securities, and tax law. Elaisha represents employers in a wide range of matters in state courts and federal courts as well as before administrative agencies, providing preventive counsel that helps successfully resolve litigious matters.
