Spencer Fane Team Claims Law Bowl Title in Support of Big Brothers Big Sisters

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce that its Wichita, Kansas, office earned first place at the 2026 Law Bowl, held as part of the Bowl for Kids' Sake campaign, a charitable competition benefiting Big Brothers Big Sisters Serving Sedgwick County, Kansas.

Under the leadership of player/coach and Spencer Fane associate Kendra Stacey, Spencer Fane defeated all the other law firms in Wichita by raising $4,000 for Big Brothers and Big Sisters. The firm's new Wichita office won the trophy by unseating the former three-year Law Bowl champion.

The annual event brings legal professionals together for friendly competition while raising funds which are used to connect "Bigs" and "Littles" and help strengthen one-to-one relationships that can have long-term impacts for kids who are facing adversity. As part of the Bowl for Kids' Sake event, the nonprofit hosts several industry bowling competitions as one of their signature fundraising initiatives.

The team's victory highlighted both its competitive spirit and commitment to community engagement. In addition to Kendra, Spencer Fane professionals including J.T. Klaus, Andrew Kovar, Josh Sherfy, Paula George, Sarah Morgan, and Braden Oberle participated in the fundraiser and were honored to join local business leaders in supporting Big Brothers Big Sisters' mission of creating and sustaining impactful mentoring relationships for young people throughout Sedgwick County and beyond.
