Spencer Fane Team Presents at the Association of Corporate Counsel's Arizona Chapter Meeting

Several Spencer Fane attorneys presented at the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC)'s Arizona Chapter Meeting on November 29 in Phoenix.

Co-sponsored by Spencer Fane, the event included networking, refreshments, and an educational program that offered CLE credit. In their respective presentations, Jessica Gale and Andy Federhar discussed attorney-client privilege; Raj Gangadean, Kelly Mooney, and Scott Woody gave an overview of the final regulations under the Corporate Transparency Act; and Helen Holden, Beth Nillen, and Rob Warzel addressed mental health challenges in the workplace.

The ACC is a global bar association that promotes in-house counsel's common professional and business interests through information, education, networking opportunities, and advocacy initiatives. Spencer Fane has supported several of their events this year.
