SpencerFane®

Spencer Fane Team Recognized as South Carolina Legal Elite

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorneys Kurt Rozelsky and Megan Early-Soppa have been named 2025 Legal Elite honorees by Greenville Business Magazine and its sister publications: Columbia Business Monthly, Charleston Business Magazine, B2B: The Grand Strand, and B2B: Pee Dee Business.

This distinction honors South Carolina attorneys for legal excellence. Following an extensive peer-nomination and voting process, this year's honorees have been recognized across 81 practice areas. Kurt distinguished himself in Mediation while Megan received dual recognition in the Business Litigation and Personal Injury – Defendant categories.

At Spencer Fane, Kurt serves as Office Managing Partner for the firm's Greenville office while also providing pragmatic and effective litigation solutions for clients nationwide in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, transportation and logistics, and insurance.

Megan harnesses a blend of litigation acumen, regulatory insight, and strategic risk management as a trusted advisor for clients facing the evolving challenges of the transportation, energy, and environmental sectors.

Read the full 2025 Legal Elite list here.