Spencer Fane attorneys Helen Holden and Rob Warzel are featured speakers for the Employment Law Update, a Marsh McLennan Agency seminar, on November 12 in Scottsdale, Arizona.

For this free, interactive session, Helen and Rob will harness decades of employment law experience to explore the legal developments most impactful to employers as the new year approaches. The discussion will include an update on recent Supreme Court decisions and activities in other courts and federal agencies, emphasizing developments in the law relating to reasonable accommodations.

At Spencer Fane, Helen and Rob are both integral members of the firm's Labor and Employment Practice Group. Helen helps businesses understand how successfully navigating the alphabet soup of federal and state employment laws can positively impact company culture, focusing on management-side employment law. Rob's practice encompasses all aspects of human resources counseling, employment litigation, and traditional labor law to assist clients with minimizing the time and resources spent on legal matters.
