This event has now passed.

Spencer Fane attorneys Linda Knight and William Brophy will lead an in-person CLE event hosted by ACC Colorado on January 18 in Lone Tree.

The event, Are We Covered? A Primer on Commercial Insurance for Corporate Counsel and Risk Managers, will include a networking session and dinner. Next, Linda and William will educate attendees about different types of business insurance policies, when and how to file a claim, compliance with policy conditions, common exclusions and limitations of coverage, recent industry trends, and more.

At Spencer Fane, Linda helps insurers and their insureds successfully resolve complicated first- and third-party litigation to minimize potential exposure when stakes are high. She also serves as Chair of the firm's affinity group, Women ADVOCATE. William represents sophisticated clients in complex civil disputes at the trial and appellate levels, achieving successful outcomes that limit financial exposure in high-stakes situations.
