Spencer Fane to Sponsor 2025 AIPLA Annual Meeting

Spencer Fane is pleased to serve as Tech Center Sponsor for the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) 2025 Annual Meeting from October 30 to November 1 in Washington, D.C. Attorneys Holly Barnes, Gene Cherng, Liz Isaac, and Brian Medich will represent the firm at the event.

AIPLA is a national bar association that represents a broad spectrum of professionals involved in patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, and unfair competition law, as well as other fields of law affecting intellectual property. Since its 1897 founding, AIPLA has fostered innovation, creativity, and fair competition by empowering IP professionals through education, advocacy, and mutual support. The organization's Annual Meeting serves to advance this mission through presentations on timely IP topics and challenges, networking opportunities, and hands-on skill workshops.

The Spencer Fane Intellectual Property team and D.C. office are proud to support this premier opportunity to connect with nationwide members of the IP community. In addition to a significant presence at the meeting, Spencer Fane will host an evening reception on October 29 at the Flagship Lounge. Attorneys such as Gene, Liz, John Allen, Michael Bondi, Sadaf Deedar, Darlene Ghavimi, Jeremy Lowe, Bill Powers, and Pat Whalen will gather alongside clients, friends, and AIPLA Meeting attendees to celebrate the one-year anniversary of the firm's Washington, D.C., office and anticipate a fun, informative conference.
