Spencer Fane is pleased to be the Diamond Presenting Sponsor for the 2025 Band of Angels Heart Strings Gala on February 15 at The Abbott Kansas City.

This event unites music-loving leaders in championing belonging, equity, and the transformative power of music. Featuring performances from talented student musicians, dinner and cocktails, and dancing, the gala raises funds for Band of Angels, a phenomenal organization that expands access to instruments and music education for youth in need.

Since the nonprofit was named a Spencer Fane charitable giving partner in 2023, the firm has proudly sponsored several of the organization's events, including last year's Heart Strings Gala and its annual summer fundraiser, Art That Blows.
