Spencer Fane is pleased to announce the firm is sponsoring Party Arty 2025 at the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, a February 1 fundraiser in Kansas City that supports art education.

Party Arty is a unique celebration hosted by the Young Friends of Art where art, philanthropy, and pure fun intersect. Entering its 30th year, the iconic event always fashions an unforgettable night centered on an exciting theme, spectacular outfits, and lively entertainment.

2025's theme, Opulence & Intrigue, bridges regency-era revelry with Kansas City flair. Spencer Fane staff member Evangelina Cantu is on the Party Arty Planning Committee, helping to plan and execute a unique and immersive experience for the event's nearly 1,000 guests. In addition to enjoying locally crafted cocktails and morsels, attendees will enjoy live performances, photo opportunities, and art exhibits that blend the classical with the contemporary.
