Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce Troy J. Dobbs joined the firm's Minneapolis office as an associate in the Tax, Trusts, & Estates practice group. He assists clients with all aspects of business and estate planning, offering structured, goal-oriented legal counsel while crafting carefully tailored solutions to preserve assets and protect wealth amid highly sensitive and complex circumstances.

"We look forward to welcoming Troy's fresh perspective to our expanding group of attorneys in Minnesota," said Randi Winter, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Minneapolis. "As client opportunities increase, it's exciting to onboard new talent that aligns with our strong firm culture to meet those needs and continue to foster intentional growth."

After receiving his bachelor's degree cum laude from Saint John's University, where he also briefly served as an economics teacher assistant, Troy earned his Juris Doctor from the University of St. Thomas School of Law.

While in law school, Troy served as a student practitioner for a local law firm's Bankruptcy Litigation Clinic, gaining critical experience conducting case discovery, drafting a wide variety of legal documents, and providing representation in Federal Bankruptcy Court and other legal venues. He also worked as a global investigations legal intern for a multinational medical device company and as a law librarian for the Honorable Walter Kaminsky of the Tenth Judicial District in Minnesota.
