

Spencer Fane Welcomes Colleagues from Utah's Snow Christensen & Martineau

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce its combination with Snow Christensen & Martineau, a full-service firm with a 135-year history that predates Utah becoming a state. Effective March 1, 2024, the addition brings nearly 50 attorneys to the firm who will practice from Salt Lake City and St. George, Utah.

The combination provides Spencer Fane and its clients entry into one of the nation's most dynamic markets with a team of attorneys who offer deep experience in the areas of litigation, business transactions, financial services, intellectual property, insurance, health care, white-collar criminal defense, and labor and employment. At the same time, joining Spencer Fane creates a pathway for Snow Christensen to serve the needs of its clients through a network of more than 500 attorneys across 26 offices nationwide.

"Since opening our doors in 1886, Snow Christensen & Martineau has served Utah's most prominent businesses, public entities, and individuals, and we are excited to have the opportunity to expand our services and provide even greater value with our new colleagues at Spencer Fane," D. Jason Hawkins, President of Snow Christensen & Martineau said. "Snow Christensen & Martineau and Spencer Fane have long recognized the importance of providing the highest quality legal services to our clients both locally and nationally. We continue to witness that our two firms are a match on the measures that matter most, and we are thrilled to share such a strong commitment to client service, culture, and talent development."
