

SpencerFane®

Stacy Harper Earns Spot on 2025 KCBJ 20 to Know List

Spencer Fane attorney Stacy Harper recently made the Kansas City Business Journal (KCBJ)'s 2025 list of 20 People to Know: Legal.

This KCBJ series aims to highlight the “depth and breadth of talent in the Kansas City area,” and provides an introduction to business leaders across a wide range of industries. The publication spotlighted Stacy for her prominent presence at Spencer Fane, which includes roles as Data Privacy and Cybersecurity Practice Group Leader, Health Care Law Practice Group Leader, and committee member for the firm’s connect group for LGBTQIA+ and allied professionals.

In addition to these leadership roles, Stacy counsels organizations in the health care space on regulatory compliance, health care reimbursement, and data privacy and cybersecurity issues. Her unique background as a certified professional coder and compliance officer provides her with firsthand knowledge of the legal and practical requirements faced by health care organizations. Stacy also serves on the Legal Advisory Board for AAPC, the nation’s largest education and credentialing organization for medical professionals.

Read Stacy’s full People to Know profile here. Please note, a subscription may be required.