

SpencerFane®

STCL Houston Reunion Week 2021

Spencer Fane attorney Ruthie White participated in South Texas College of Law (STCL) Houston's Reunion Week event, where she presented on diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI)-related topics.

Titled "Developing an Inclusive and Unbiased Workplace," Ruthie discussed the importance of having a diverse and inclusive workplace, including the benefits of including DEI in company culture and tips for recruitment.

Ruthie is an STCL Houston Board member and focuses her practice at Spencer Fane on labor and employment law. She helps clients in discrimination, harassment, and retaliation cases while defending educational entities, local governments, and clients in the energy, banking, technology, retail, health care, and construction industries in legal venues throughout the state. She is a frequent speaker for law schools and bar associations and is often called upon to make DEI presentations.

To learn more, please click here.