SpencerFane®

Susan Cintron Honored as Unsung Legal Hero

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce Susan Cintron has been honored as a 2023 Unsung Legal Hero by Missouri Lawyers Media. Recognized for her role as a legal administrative assistant in Kansas City, Susan was featured alongside her fellow honorees in a special edition of the publication.

Reserved for the state's most talented and dedicated legal support professionals, Unsung Legal Heroes seeks "to recognize the employees on whom attorneys rely day-in and day-out … the ones who rise to the occasion despite anonymity." Past firm honorees include Allen Darrah and Laurie Coleman. This year, Susan is one of only two honorees in her category, Administrative Support Specialist.

In her feature, Susan shared that "it's not so much the [legal] field that I chose, but the company! I work for an amazing law firm that is all about its people and providing exceptional service to our clients."

Read Susan's full feature here. Please note, a subscription may be required.