The Journal Record Honors Spencer Fane for Empowering Women

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce the firm as a 2025 honoree for The Journal Record Empowering Women Awards.

As the publication explains, these awards "honor companies and organizations for their specific focus on supporting and elevating women in Oklahoma." As a firm committed to the fundamental value of equality, Spencer Fane earned this distinction for its dedication to removing systemic barriers and advancing representation and visibility for all professionals, as evidenced by the impactful leadership of Shannon Forth Davies as Office Managing Partner for the firm's Oklahoma City office.

This 2025 Empowering Women Awards continues an ongoing trend of industry recognition for Spencer Fane as the firm maintains its commitment to inclusion-focused initiatives and a culture of belonging. Through initiatives spearheaded by the Spencer Fane DEI Committee, connect group committees, and other firm leadership, Spencer Fane breathes life into fundamental principles that strengthen its professionals, clients, and communities.
