Three Spencer Fane Attorneys Attend 2024 National Apartment Association Rental Housing Advocacy and Legal Summit

Spencer Fane attorneys Sarah Fandrey (Dallas), Tara Holterhaus (Omaha), and Karen McCay (San Jose) recently attended the 2024 National Apartment Association (NAA) Rental Housing Advocacy and Legal Summit (RHALS) in Irving, Texas, where they were thrilled to connect with hundreds of legal professionals and industry thought leaders from across the country.

RHALS featured informative sessions on critical issues facing the multi-family housing industry with open discussions and networking sessions for all attendees. Sarah, Tara, and Karen were able to connect with owners, operators, and other legal professionals on meaningful industry topics while representing three of the firm's offices across its expanding national footprint.

At Spencer Fane, the three attorneys are multidisciplinary members of the Real Estate practice group, where they serve as thoughtful and vigorous advocates for clients navigating a broad spectrum of real estate matters, including multi-family housing. They are active contributors to both firmwide and external legal initiatives, influencing important industry discussions and gaining comprehensive insights which deepen their practices and widen the firm's reach.
