SpencerFane®

To Merge or Not to Merge: University Considerations

May 21, 2026
CT - CT

Wondering if a merger is the right move for your college or university? And, if so, what regulatory hurdles will you face and what will the process involve? Join Allison Garrett – an attorney with decades of experience in higher education including serving as a former university president and chancellor overseeing 25 public colleges and universities – as we break down the current landscape and essential steps in higher education mergers.