SpencerFane®

Trace Blankenship Presents at Spencer Fane-Sponsored Nonprofit Bootcamp

Spencer Fane was pleased to once again co-sponsor the Blankenship CPA Group's Annual Nonprofit Bootcamp on August 17 in Nashville. Trace Blankenship represented the firm as a presenter.

This half-day event was co-sponsored by the firm, Blankenship CPA Group, and Lighthouse Counsel. Attended by approximately 200 nonprofit executives, nonprofit consultants, and board members every year, the bootcamp featured a welcome breakfast and insights of various thought leaders addressing challenges faced by nonprofit organizations.

This year's event focused on the theme of "Big Giving: Capturing the Heart of a Generous Giver." Program attendees learned proven strategies to strengthen donor engagement. various thought leaders addressing challenges faced by nonprofit organizations.

Trace's remarks were focused on what's on the mind of board chairs and board members who are fundraising volunteers trying to develop giving strategies in a volatile economy.

At Spencer Fane, Trace regularly advises chief executives, senior management, boards of directors, and entrepreneurs on strategy, execution, and legal requirements of significant business transactions, complex leadership and ownership decisions, and day-to-day operations. He provides responsive day-to-day legal advice on all aspects of corporate operations critical to his clients' success and growth.

Learn about last year's Nonprofit Bootcamp here.