We're Still Standing: Managing COVID in the Workplace for 2022

Spencer Fane attorney Helen Holden will present an upcoming webinar covering recent COVID-19 developments and the pandemic-induced challenges that continue to remain present in the workplace, with a focus on Arizona jurisdiction.

Hosted by Lovitt & Touché, Helen will discuss two U.S. Supreme Court decisions related to vaccine mandates. She will also highlight ways employers can remain up-to-date with Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) regulations and ensure a safe and healthy work environment.

The presentation will address:

- Where we stand now on federal vaccine mandates;
- What Arizona employers need to know about recent state COVID-related legislation and proposed laws;
- Maintaining a safe workplace under pandemic conditions; and,
- Understanding accommodation and pay requirements.
