WorkSmarts Pop-Up: Confessions of a Former In-House Lawyer

October 20, 2026
12:00 pm CT - 1:00 pm CT

This event has now passed.

Three of our employment litigators spent years working in the legal departments of major telecommunications, technology, and water treatment companies before returning to private practice, and they're ready to spill the secrets. Join Kami Hoskins, Rachel Marshall, Pablo Orozco, and Kunal Shah for a candid conversation about what it's really like to sit on the other side of the table, the outside-counsel pet peeves they swore they'd never repeat, and how they apply their experience to help Spencer Fane clients today. Equal parts practical insight and entertaining war stories, this session is a must-attend for in-house counsel at every career stage.
