

SpencerFane®

Affiliations

Spencer Fane has entered into a limited number of strategic affiliations which enable the firm to better serve our clients. These affiliations allow us to engage in joint training opportunities and to exchange thoughts on emerging issues.

---

THE BRIDGE GROUP

The Bridge Group is a non-exclusive network of law firms in the United States, England, France, Belgium and Germany. Each member of The Bridge Group is dedicated to providing clients with the highest quality legal services and maintains a responsive and timely approach to each client's special needs. The Bridge Group members call upon the expertise and services of other group members in a given geographic area in order to most efficiently and professionally represent each client.

Visit The Bridge Group web site.

TAGLAW

TAGlaw is a global alliance of 150 specially selected law firms practicing in over 90 countries. The alliance includes over 6,000 highly qualified lawyers in 300 offices who provide a full range of legal services to clients throughout the world. Spencer Fane is the designated firm for Missouri.

Spencer Fane's membership in TAGlaw brings value to your business by making available immediately the local knowledge, experience and expertise that you need not only across the United States but also in every country that you do business. Each firm in this international network is committed to providing the same quality of timely and cost effective service as Spencer Fane. In addition, our lawyers take the time on a regular basis to meet with our TAGlaw colleagues thereby ensuring that your business needs are met by lawyers whom we know and trust.

We at Spencer Fane are committed to meeting your legal needs wherever you do business. Our membership in TAGlaw helps us serve you better because your business is important to us.

View the TAGlaw website.