Overview

Alexander H. (Alex) Ramon is a proactive civil litigator and effective advocate for clients in and out of the courtroom, navigating complex civil litigation spanning general business, commercial real estate, employment, and trade secrets as well as contractual disputes, judgment enforcement, and professional liability matters.

Well-versed in all stages of a dispute, Alex works closely with businesses and individuals to form agile, risk-sensitive strategies that adapt to specific goals and objectives as cases progress for consistently favorable outcomes. He has gained diverse client and industry exposure working within Silicon Valley, helping resolve complex, high-value disputes at large, established companies and playing a critical role in early legal decision-making for startup ventures.
