Overview

Andy Peskoe focuses his practice on the representation of private and public emerging growth companies and venture capital and private equity funds in domestic and international transactions, providing comprehensive guidance on efficient and beneficial deal structuring. He advises clients on mergers and acquisitions, equity and debt financings, technology transfer and licensing matters, and complex financing transactions, including leveraged buyouts and growth equity investments.

With a broad transactional background, Andy regularly counsels strategic investors, founders, and management teams in a range of industries, including new media, technology, financial services, food and hospitality, logistics, investment management, communications, biotechnology, and consumer products. His clients benefit from his deep understanding of market dynamics and investor expectations, particularly in high-growth and innovation-driven sectors.

In addition to transactional work, Andy provides general corporate counsel to companies, individuals, and nonprofit organizations, supporting their business development and governance needs throughout all stages of growth.

Andy is a sought-after thought leader across diverse legal and business communities, frequently presenting at industry events where topics span domestic and international transactions, finance, entrepreneurship, technology, and food and hospitality. He notably holds board positions for multiple holding companies, where he guides financial strategy and growth in alignment with shareholder interests.
