Overview

Dalma Kovacs brings beneficial experience handling complex commercial disputes, cross-border litigation, and international arbitration for a wide variety of clients, using her accumulated perspective to drive the creation and execution of legal strategies aimed at achieving efficient and effective resolutions.

Before relocating to the U.S., Dalma worked at two major international law firms in Budapest, Hungary, where she was involved in a range of sophisticated litigation involving multinational clients and cross-jurisdictional legal issues. Her background brings a unique global perspective to her practice, particularly in matters involving international business disputes and arbitration.
