Overview

Darlene Ghavimi represents clients in complex intellectual property litigation, including patent, copyright, and trademark matters. Backed by extensive first chair trial experience, she consistently achieves favorable outcomes in contentious intellectual property cases in federal courts across the U.S. and before the International Trade Commission.

A dedicated advisor with concentrated knowledge and litigation experience, Darlene adeptly navigates highly intricate matters across varied technologies, including semiconductors, fiber optics, cellular and wireless standards, computer software, photovoltaics, power inverters, stem cell and tissue repair, pharmaceutical compositions, mechanical devices, and medical devices.

Darlene litigates trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, prosecutes patents at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, and inter partes review proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board.
