Overview

Ellsie Lucero represents clients in a variety of commercial litigation matters, curating optimal strategies to meet specific business objectives while mitigating potential damage. She focuses primarily on contract disputes, real estate disputes, and business torts, using clear communication to identify client needs amid complex and high-stakes conflicts.

In addition to her commercial litigation focus, Ellsie works on all facets of water law, including regulatory hearings and district court and appellate litigation. As she expands both her broad litigatory prowess and specialized industry knowledge, she also draws on previous experience representing large, national corporations in general liability matters.

While earning her Juris Doctor, Ellsie served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Cam Ferenbach in the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada and for the Honorable Ronald J. Israel in the Eighth Judicial District Court.
